

Your strategic fundraising partners

At F+H Partners, we are passionate about helping organizations like yours thrive. With our extensive experience serving nonprofits of all sizes, we understand the unique challenges you face. We are here to listen, collaborate, and create a tailored plan that will not only strengthen your fundraising efforts but also deepen your organization's impact in the community.

What We Do

With more than 25 years of fundraising experience, our partners, Amy Funk and Peter Hussell, help organizations raise more money. Whether its board trainings, event planning, staff coaching, campaign planning or more, our services are scaled to fit your organization's needs and resources.

SERVICES

Fundraising Assessments

Need to raise more money but you're not sure how? We deliver strategic, customized recommendations on multi-year fundraising strategies connected to your goals, development best practices, organizational and staffing models, and prospect pools. Our goal is to equip you with a targeted plan that maximizes the effectiveness and impact of your fundraising efforts.

Coaching & Counsel

Need help getting and staying on track? We will work with you to create space for intentional cultivation by integrating donor outreach into your regular calendars and habits, fostering authentic relationships that energize supporters around your mission. Together, we will craft unique value propositions that resonate with your donors, tying their interests to customized opportunities for transformational investment in your mission.

Event Assessments

Looking to improve your event ROI? We can help you maximize your revenue and minimize stress. Our event assessments deliver strategic, customized recommendations on event revenue, improvements in theme/agenda, staffing and logistics coverage, and mission engagement. The result is a targeted plan equipping you to maximize your event's revenue and long-term impact.
